

U.S. Department of Energy
Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy

Clean Cities International Market Development

Marcy Rood

National Clean Cities Conference

May 3, 2004

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

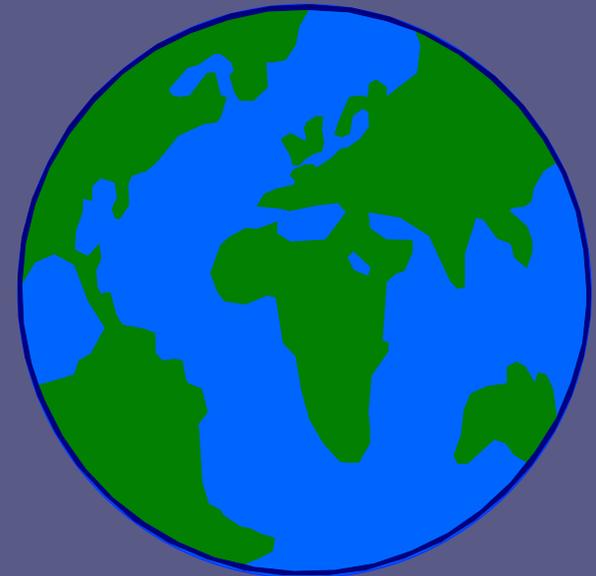

Clean Cities International

GOAL: Facilitate exchange of information on the use of alternatives to petroleum fuel in the transport sector and ensure safety and effectiveness of AFV programs.

ACTIVITIES:

- Information Exchange
- Training for Technicians
- Coalition Formation
- Trade Missions
- Review of Codes and Standards

Clean Cities Activity Around the World

★ Current Clean Cities International Activity

“Why Clean Cities International” Report

- Draft Report, “Why Clean Cities International?” Executive Summary in circulation at conference
- Broad assessment of:
 - Program Mission, Strategy, Vision
 - Global market activity
 - Environmental benefits and public health impacts
 - Enhancement of U.S. government policy
- Stakeholder comment period summer 2004
- Look for meetings and conference calls to provide comment and input

Future Activities

- Final Report, “Why Clean Cities International?”
- Clean Cities Workshop at Better Air Quality (BAQ) Conference, December 2004
- USAID/India-funded Clean Vehicle project...
 - Delhi Clean Cities Program
- Bangladesh...
 - Mid-May Dhaka Clean Cities Meeting
- USAID/Philippines...
 - Baguio and Cavite Clean Cities Programs
- Mexico...
 - Mexico City Clean Cities Meeting